LOCAL MATTERS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.—Garden thieves are very much complained of.

The Penitentiary Board was in session yesterday.

Judge Merrimon speaks in Clinton today.

Memorial fair at Tucker Hall tonight.

A good thing—Carmen's Baking Powder.

Gav. Caldwell is still confined to his room, but convalescent.

The city was on its good behavior yesterday—not a single police arrest reported.

Messrs. Nelson & Miller have commenced operations in their new saloon, under the market.

Gen. Hoke is expected in the city tomorrow from his tour through the far Western States.

J. M. Justice, of Rutherford, is the Assistant District Solicitor to the venerable Starbuck.

Dr. Hughes, of Craven, brother of our candidate for Lieutenant Governor, is in the city.

Capt. Fred. Nash, of Charlotte, was among the list of prominent arrivals in the city yesterday.

We saw a stalk of corn in this city yesterday nearly six feet in height, fresh and green and growing beautifully.

Get your dinner to-day from the ladies of the Memorial Society, at Tucker Hall. Only $1 for the full bill of fare.

See the advertisement of Goodloe, the Grocer. He has a choice selection of family groceries, and will sell at bottom prices. Call and see him at his store, on Martin Street.

It will be noticed in the proceedings of the city Board of Commissioners that the incidental expenses of the city will be paid up promptly in money hereafter.

Mr. Doepp, of the firm of Doepp & Jones, druggists, leaves for New York to-day to purchase the necessary apparatus for enlarging the bottling department of their soda and mineral waters.

The press of matter last night precluded the possibility of a description of the festivities at Tucker Hall, the occasion of the Ladies' Memorial Fair and Feast. It was really the affair, of its character, of the season. Let them be equally as successful to-night.

WANTED—A BOATLAIN PONEY.—Maj. Smith, in his speech to the negroes and others at the Franklinton Convention, said he would go home, mount his hob-nail pony and go to work canvassing the by-paths, in the bushes &c., &c., through the whole district. We saw him yesterday, rigged as a man of fashion, seated in an elegant phaeton drawn by a splendid span of long-tail bays, canvassing Fayetteville street. We suppose the boatlain pony must be "played," and a rare opportunity is here offered any one who has a broken down pony of the boatlain order to make an advantageous sale. Apply at once to Major Smith, at the National Hotel.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PIC-NIC AND EXCURSION.—The Methodist Sunday School of this city, Mr. W. J. Young, Superintendent, will have an excursion to Carey on the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line R. R., on Friday next. After arriving at this beautiful forest retreat, the School will engage in a basket picnic. Thanks to the Superintendent for a complimentary ticket, and we shall endeavor to be on hand.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.—The Democratic Conservative Convention of the 4th Congressional District will convene in the Court House in this city, at 10 o'clock to-day.

H. A. LONDON, JR., Chairman E. C. Com.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF CITY COMMISSIONERS.

The Commissioners met on Tuesday evening at the Mayor's office.

Present: W. Whitaker, Mayor, Messrs. Churchill, Battle, Stronach, Gorman, Prairie, Upchurch, Ellison and Durston, Commissioners.

Proceedings of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The committee appointed to rent out the west end of the Market basement room, submitted a verbal report, and on motion of Mr. Battle, the report was referred to the City Attorney for his opinion in regard to the transfer of the lease with the license for retailing liquors, and if the original lessee has the right to subrent, &c.

The Street Committee submitted a report, which was read and filed.

On motion of Mr. Battle, it was ordered that the present force be reduced to 25, who shall be selected from the institutions, able bodied, permanent citizens of Raleigh.

Mr. Battle also moved that all the new streets be opened as soon as practicable, even if the regular street work was suspended for it.

It was ordered that Peace Street be widened ten feet each way, and Messrs. John Nichols, D. L. Royster, Handy Lockhart, Colonel Shaffer and Thomas Jenkins were appointed to assess the damages according to law.

J. P. Adams was elected tax assessor, vice Col. Shaffer, resigned.

On motion of Durston, col., a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Gorman, Churchill and Ellison, were appointed to examine the books of the late officers.

On motion of Ellison, col., the Clerk was authorized to advertise for a pump contractor, whose duty it shall be to keep all the public wells in order, to furnish stocks and platforms, &c. The clerk to receive the proposals in ten days.

The old stable building on Wilmington street, adjoining the premises of J. P. Prairie, belonging to the estate of Mrs. M. Smith, was condemned and ordered to be removed within ten days.

On motion of Capt. Gorman, it was ordered that one of Kitchen's North Carolina force pumps be placed in the well at the corner of Exchange Place and Fayetteville street, in order that its merits may be tested.

The following ordinance was offered by Mr. Battle and unanimously adopted:

Ordered, That if any person shall wilfully or negligently, or by unreasonably violence in using, injure any public well or pump of the city, he shall forfeit and pay $10, and the city police be instructed to use special diligence to carry this ordinance into effect.

It was ordered that the Street Commissioner cover up the well now open on a vacant lot in eastern ward.

Osborn Holt was re-elected sexton for the city cemetery.

Henry Hunter, col., was elected sexton for the colored cemetery.

Nichols & Gorman were elected city printers.

On motion of Mr. Battle, the City Treasurer was authorized to borrow money at short time for the purpose of paying incidental expenses of the city, and pledge the first moneys received for taxes as security.

Adjourned to Monday night next.

THE ATLANTIC HOUSE AT BEAUFORT.

—To those contemplating a trip to the seaside this summer, we respectfully refer them to the advertisement of this excellent house.

Mr. Taylor is said to be one of the finest caterers in the South, and feeds like a prince. Charlotte, his valuable assistant, is the man to do the honors of the office, and one peculiarly fitted by nature to play the agreeable and please all. The Atlantic is delightfully situated about a mile from Beaufort, immediately over the raging billows and rolling tide, and consequently is continuously fanned by the never-ceasing sea-breeze.

Steamers and sail-vessels ply at all hours between the "Atlantic" and Beaufort and Morehead City. Mr. Charlotte has also engaged the services of the "cool, calm and deliberate" Capt. Alpha Dickson, the best boatman on the coast, as manager of the pleasure yachts of the house, a fact that will insure perfect safety to his guests while indulging in this agreeable recreation. Don't forget the "Atlantic" and friend Charlotte, when you start for the coast.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT, HON. GEORGE W. BROOKS, JUDGE, PRESIDING.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5th.

A large majority of the cases called on yesterday, was upon the application of Attorneys, removed to the Western District and Circuit Courts, (civil cases) according to the act, could only be removed to the Circuit Court. The following cases on the criminal docket were disposed of:

U. S. vs. Milo Moffitt, from Chatham, illicit distilling; verdict not guilty.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GRAND CHAPTER OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS OF NORTH CAROLINA

[REPORTED ESPECIALLY FOR THE DAILY NEWS BY ITS OWN REPORTER.]

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 3, 1872.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of North Carolina, convened in St. John's Masonic Hall, this evening at 8 o'clock. M. E. John Nichols, Grand High Priest, presiding, with a representation from nine Chapters.

The cause of the representation of so few of the subordinate Chapters (there are about nineteen existing in the State) is attributable to the remoteness of Wilmington, which is the permanent seat of the Grand Chapter, from a large majority of the Chapters.

Royal Arch Masons who annually attend the convocations here, appreciate the great necessity of a removal of the Grand Chapter from this city to Raleigh or some other place more central and accessible. A proposition to amend the Constitution of the Grand Chapter, making Raleigh the future seat of the Lodge, is to be acted on at the present session, with a probability of its adoption.

To effect this, a two-third vote is necessary, which could be easily obtained if the Chapters were generally represented.

The session this evening was confined to the ordinary routine of opening, reading of address by the presiding officer, and appointment of Committees. This being done, the Grand Chapter was "called off" until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. The address of the Grand High Priest elicited much praise for its ability.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 4.

The business of this morning's session was not of vital importance beyond the exemplification of the "work" in part, which feature in our business, under favorable circumstances, be made beneficial to the heart of draftsman who desire "light."

Owing to the few present, however, at these annual sessions, the good accomplished in this direction, is confined mainly to those who witness the exemplification. The dissemination, therefore, of the "standard" work of the State cannot be very readily accomplished. These remarks are mainly for the benefit of Masons who alone can appreciate them.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The election of Grand Officers took place this afternoon. They are as follows:

John Nichols, Raleigh, Grand High Priest.

H. H. Monson, Wilmington, Deputy High Priest.

Geo. W. Blount, Wilson, Grand King.

Thos. J. Sloan, Greensboro, Grand Scribe.

C. M. Van Orsdel, Wilmington, Grand Treasurer.

Thos. B. Carr, Wilmington, Grand Secretary.

J. M. Shelly, Greensboro, Grand Capt. Host.

The Grand High Priest made the following appointments:

C. J. Rountree, Wilson, Principal S. Journer.

G. W. Jewett, Wilmington, R. A. Capt.

R. H. Bradley, Raleigh, G. M., 3rd Veil.

T. M. Gardner, Wilmington, G. M., 2nd Veil.

W. T. Battley, Clinton, G. M., 1st Veil.

Rev. Geo. Patterson, Wilmington, Grand Chaplain.

E. Turlington, Wilmington, Grand Tiler.

J. C. Mann, Wilmington, Grand Organist.

The Grand Chapter, by a unanimous vote, returned to its allegiance to the General Grand Chapter of the United States.

The vote on the removal of the Grand Chapter has not yet been reached.

Adjourned until to-morrow morning.

INTERESTING DIALOGUE AT A SEWING CIRCLE.

—What sewing machine have you, Mrs. G.?

Mrs. G. I have the Howe.

The Howe! Mr. — told me it run hard.

Mrs. G. "Run hard!" I have used all the other machines and it is the easiest running one I ever had.

"He told me it would wear out soon too, and that they had to be oiled with kerosene."

Mrs. G. "Oh! what a mistake, why, shoe manufacturers, who run machines by steam, say that it wears longer than any other sewing machine made, and whoever told you those stories was either ignorant or worse than that."

SCOTT'S COURT.—THE COURT MET AT 9 O'CLOCK.

All the Justices present.

The following cases from the First Judicial District were taken up and disposed of as follows:

Stephen W. Britton vs. W. R. Miller et al., from Bertie, transferred to the end of the docket for a future hearing.

Louisa Eason, Adm'x. vs. Jos. R. Billup et al., from Perquimans, same as above.

Miles Mitchell vs. Munna Mitchell and her children, from Hertford, case argued. Hon. W. N. H. Smith, for plaintiff, and Jos. B. Batchelor and Judge Barnes for defendants.

James W. Towse vs. Thomas A. Towse et al., from Pasquotank. Transferred to end of docket for future hearing.

State ex. John Bray and Willis Dudley, from Bertie. Case argued. Attorney General Shipp, Battle & Sons and Ovide Dapre for the State, and Smith & Strong for defendants.

Appeals from the Second District will be taken up to-morrow.

THE DISTRICT CONVENTION.—THE Democratic-Conservative Convention of the 4th Congressional District, will convene in the Court House this morning at 10 o'clock.

The trains of yesterday brought in a large number of delegates from the counties, and the Convention will doubtless be full. The names of several of the most prominent men of the District are mentioned in connection with the nomination, all of whom are popular, and either one of which would lead our forces to a triumphant victory. We await the pleasure of the Convention in its choice, and will be satisfied with its decision.

THE DECLARATION TO-NIGHT.—The pupils of the Wesleyan Male Academy will declaim to-night at Metropolitan Hall, commencing precisely at 8 o'clock, in order to close in time to permit the audience to attend the Memorial fair at Tucker Hall. Our citizens will doubtless turn out in large numbers.

PERSONAL.—Robert M. Furman, of the Franklin Courier, and Cicero W. Harris, of the Battleboro Advertiser, "put in an appearance" in our sanctum yesterday evening. These gentlemen bring cheering intelligence from their respective counties, of the certain success of our ticket in August.

PAID UP.—S. B. Taylor, Esq., Treasurer of Onslow county, yesterday drew $1,785 from the State Treasurer, this being the amount apportioned to the county under the School fund law of 1870.

JUDGE MERRIMON IN THE EAST.

HIS SPEECH IN NEWBERN.

THE GOLDSBORO CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Judge Merrimon, Major Hughes, Judge Shipp and Major Graham invited to Honorary Seats.

JUDGE MERRIMON ADDRESSES THE CONVENTION.

RADICAL INCENDIARY SPEECHES.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., June 5th, 1872.

JUDGE MERRIMON

spoke in Newbern yesterday afternoon to a large audience of that place and the surrounding country, and we have not yet seen his speech productive of better effect, or received with more warmth. The good people of Craven, although overcome by a large Radical majority, have yet determined to do their whole duty, and will be most favorably heard from in August.

MAJOR HUGHES

followed with a brief speech, but which was filled with an earnestness which will carry with him through the campaign. Newbern is the Major's home, and the esteem in which he is held by the people of that section is the best evidence of the good selection made by the Greensboro Convention for the office of Lieutenant Governor.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION of Craven was held in Newbern yesterday, Capt. James A. Bryan was nominated for the State Senate, and Messrs. M. D. W. Stevenson and J. Henry Lobson for the lower House. These gentlemen will thoroughly canvass the county and thus effect much good for the general ticket.

To-day at 11 o'clock the

assembled in the Courthouse in this place, the delegation being very large and representing every county in the District except two.

The Convention was called to order by Col. Walter Clark of Halifax, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the District, and upon his motion, I. E. Seidman, of Edgecombe, was made permanent Chairman. The following gentlemen were made Vice-Presidents: T. N. Hill, of Halifax; J. R. Thigpen, of Edgecombe; J. S. Grant, Northampton; R. W. King, Wilson; Joseph P. Spaight, Greene; Arthur Spaight, Wayne; Dr. J. P. Bryan, Lenoir; Samuel Radcliffe, Craven.

On motion, the members of the press present were invited to act as Secretaries.

A committee of two from each county was appointed to report to the Convention names for candidates for Congress, and electors and delegates to the Baltimore Convention. Pending this report, a committee was appointed to wait upon Judge Merrimon, Major Hughes, Judge Shipp and Major John W. Graham, and invite these gentlemen to address the meeting. Their appearance in the hall was greeted with great applause.

Judge Merrimon then addressed the Convention for the space of two hours, the eager attention of the audience being accorded the speaker. He was followed by Judge Shipp, Major Hughes and Major Graham, but a want of time prevented our noticing their remarks at this time.

We are pleased to see, from the positive evidence here to-day, that the Conservatives of the Second Congressional District, notwithstanding the positive majority of 7,000 against them, intend fighting the campaign with all positive vigor.

Judge Merrimon leaves here this afternoon for Clinton, Sampson county, accompanied by Judge Shipp, at which place they will address the citizens of Sampson to-morrow.

GOVERNOR CALDWELL, having been taken sick at Kinston, did not speak here on Monday, as was expected to proceed to Raleigh. Col. Hargrove, Gen. Willie D. Jones and James Justice, of Rutherford, however, orated here on that day to some 75 blacks and some 25 whites. We hear Justice's speech here condemned as of the most incendiary and damnable character, well calculated to be productive of much damage in exciting the worst passions of the black man.

The following nominations were made this afternoon in the Democratic Convention of the Second Congressional District, in session in this place: For Congress, Captain W. H. Kitchin, of Halifax. Delegates to the Baltimore Convention, Dr. C. J. Gee, of Halifax; Col. T. S. Kenan, of Wilson; alternates, Capt. John S. Dancy, of Edgecombe, and R. S. Radcliffe, of Craven. Presidential Elector, Capt. Swift Galloway, of Greene.

OUR HURFRESBORO LETTER.

MURFRESBORO, N. C., June 4th, 1872.

The political campaign this summer in Hertford promises to be exciting, and we shall endeavor to keep your readers well posted. The Radicals held their pow-wow at Winton yesterday, and we understand from those present, that there was some fun there. Not a few of the "fire-brands" came away disgusted, and unless there shall be some one able to quiet the discordant elements, there is some hope of good coming out of their meeting. The Conservatives need not trust anything to a split among them, however, for long before the day of election the majority of the voters will be found obedient to the party lash and working quietly in harness. We must rely upon our efforts alone, and work as if the result depended upon the vote of one man.

But begging pardon for this digression, we proceed to inform you that James Sharpe, of Hartselle, received the Radical nomination for the House of Representatives, which he accepted most gladly, and pledged himself to canvass the county thoroughly. This nomination has been given to Sharpe as a reward for his recent desertion from our ranks, and may prove a source of weakness, for many of their staunchest men declare that they will not support a new county if after more than nine days probation. We understand that he has but little talent, and will be as nothing on the stump when he meets our candidates. It is understood that he has been heard to declare that he intended to join the Radical party awhile, and if they did not reward his treason to the Conservative party, he would leave them. He has evidently gone over, like many others, for the purpose of securing position, and in this we trust he will be signally disappointed.

His character, political and private alike, will be very thoroughly ventilated before the first day of August. It must be a source of no little mortification to W. D. Newsom, the present incumbent, to think that his great efforts in the Legislature have failed to receive any recognition from his friends, and that the cold shoulder has been so soon turned upon him. Take my word for it, and see if there are not fewer negroes in the next Legislature, than there was in the two last. White men have gone over to secure the positions, and they are shrewd enough to headlink the negro, and carry out their designs. The white Radical vote in this county, we feel sure, will not count up more than twenty-five votes, but not a blackskin has been given a place on the ticket, except one for County Commissioner. We are pleased to learn that during the campaign we shall have several prominent gentlemen to visit us, among whom we have heard the names of Mills, Eure and Thos. J. Jarvis. Come on, gentlemen, and we promise you a cordial welcome. We join "Jude" in extending a cordial invitation to Mr. Turner, of the Sentinel, to come down and address our people. We are anxious to hear him, and will be pleased to extend to him the courtesies due to one who has done such valuable service for the Conservative cause.

The spirit of improvement seems to be on the increase and our old town is putting on her second youth. The Masonic Hall has been nicely painted, and when blinds for it are procured, it will be pronounced by all a beautiful building. The members of that order deserve no little praise for their liberality in building and decorating their hall.

While Judge Merrimon was in town, our enterprising and accommodating artists succeeded in getting a splendid photograph of him, which is on exhibition at their rooms, and is daily viewed by a number of persons. All agree in pronouncing it a fine face and none have looked upon it without going away proud of our candidate. By the way, these artists, Messrs. Harrell and Grimes, have taken some elegant pictures here, among which we notice particularly, photographs of the two Female Colleges. Mr. Grimes is also agent for the American Sewing Machine and is doing a good business in selling them.

Having eschewed the weather and crops so long, we will be pardoned for saying, that we are having a large quantity of rain which interferes somewhat with the farming operations. Many persons have not finished bringing their cotton to a "stand"—as it is called, and are growing restless under the delay to which they are subjected. It is generally conceded that there never was better stand of cotton than there is at present in this section. We hope the crop will be equally as good.

NORTH CAROLINA IN THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

The delegates thus far chosen by the District Conventions which have been held in this State, are good selections and worthy representatives of the party. We trust the other Conventions yet to be held will exercise equal good sense, discretion and judgment.

The four Delegates for the State at large will be selected by the Executive Committee on to-morrow. The Committee will be at no loss for good material. The only difficulty they will have will be, to choose from the large number of able, patriotic and deserving Democrats from the different sections of the State, such Delegates or Alternates as will be sure to attend, and who after they get to Baltimore, will not be so wedded to any plans of their own, as to be unwilling to adopt those of other persons.

Our delegates should not be impracticable or self-willed; but should be men of toleration and liberal views, who will stand by party organization and adhere to the fortunes of the Democratic party under all circumstances.

We must not send Delegates to Baltimore who will not vote the Democratic ticket. We do not wish to see any disorganizers or factionists sent as Delegates. We must have there true men—sensible men, conservative men—men who appreciate the condition of the country, and are prepared to accept any line of policy that the great National Democratic party may decide to be the proper one to defeat Radicalism and preserve the principles of Constitutional Government.

We must not send Delegates to Baltimore who, if Greeley is nominated, will complain, and find fault, and turn a cold shoulder to the action of the Convention. If the Convention should decide that Greeley is the best man with whom to best Grant, the old Democratic columns should fall at once into line, put on their white hats with brown bands, and stand in united phalanx, with shield locked above shield, prepared to meet and overthrow the cohorts of centralization and despotism.

We must not send Delegates to Baltimore who, if Greeley is thrown overboard and a straight ticket nominated, will declare they will not vote the Democratic ticket, but will vote for Greeley and Brown. If a majority of our Delegates should be of opinion that Greeley will not poll the Democratic strength, but that there is a chance to elect a ticket of our own, we should acquiesce without objection in that decision and stand by the Democratic nominees. It is certain that if Greeley cannot command the support of our Delegates on the 9th of July, he cannot command the votes of the Democratic masses on the first Thursday in November. To insist on his nomination under such circumstances would be unwise and impolitic, and if he should be nominated against the popular sentiment and in defiance of the protest of the shrewdest and best informed political leaders at the North, we would be inviting defeat and overwhelming disaster—which would certainly come at our calling.

The North Carolina Delegates at the Baltimore Convention will, in all probability, urgently insist on the acquiescence in the platform and nominees of the Cincinnati Convention. The platform, taken as a whole, is admirable, and about as good as a National Democratic Convention could frame. Gov. Brown, the candidate for the Vice Presidency, is highly acceptable to the South, and there can be no objection urged to him. Mr. Greeley's past course is highly objectionable to the South; but he stands on the Cincinnati platform, and his admirable letter of acceptance has removed the doubts which many had that he was in favor of hostile legislation to the South. We can endorse Mr. Greeley's letter, and if he administers the Government on the principles set forth therein, we can vote for him consistently with our honor and our principles.

We must all bear in mind that if Greeley's nomination is acquiesced in at Baltimore, we do not propose to vote for a Democrat, but a Liberal Republican candidate, for the purpose of defeating the nominee of the Philadelphia Convention. We propose to hold on to our organization and our principles—but being in such a minority in the electoral college that we cannot have a chance to elect a candidate of our own, we elect to go with a faction of the Republican party, in order to beat the Radical candidate.

If Greeley is taken up at Baltimore, it will be because we are under a thorough conviction of the impossibility of electing men of our own party and our own choice; and in order to preserve the principles of the Constitution and turn rogues and incompetent men out of office, we propose for the time being to aid the Liberal Republicans, with whose assistance we can certainly overthrow the Radical party, purify the Government, and ameliorate the condition of the whole country.

We believe that North Carolina will have more influence at Baltimore than some of the other Southern States who have been shouting till their throats have become sore, over Greeley and Brown. Such a policy of dragoning and forcing men under the Greeley flag is calculated to drive off many who could easily be won over by reason and argument.

The next question that presents itself: Will the Baltimore Convention adopt the Cincinnati nominees? We believe it will—as the indications point decidedly in that direction. A straight nomination in the present attitude of parties, is not advisable, and we hope it will not be made. But if it is made, we shall conclude the Convention acted deliberately and advisedly—and under the impression that Greeley could not get the votes of the Democrats in the North.

But whatever course is adopted, let us all stand together in unbroken lines, and if defeat should come, let us feel proud in the consciousness that we have endeavored to perform our duty to our party, to ourselves, and to the whole country.

THE CONVENTION TO-DAY.

To-day, the delegates appointed to the Congressional Convention for the Fourth District, will meet in the Court House in this City, to nominate a candidate for Congress and Elector for President, and to select two Delegates to the Baltimore Convention.

A large number of Delegates arrived yesterday, and many more will come to-day. We anticipate a large Convention, and we desire that it shall be an enthusiastic and harmonious one, as we have every reason to believe that it will be.

"Everything for the cause and nothing for men," should be our motto to-day. Personal preferences should give way for the interests of the party—which are above the interests of any individual.

The names of Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Hon. John Manning, Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Capt. J. J. Davis, Gen. W. R. Cox, Maj. James T. Littlejohn, Hon. D. G. Fowle, L. R. Waddell, Esq., and perhaps others have been mentioned in connection with the Congressional nomination.

The Radicals have nominated as their candidate, Maj. W. A. Smith, on the score of availability alone. They considered him their "forlorn hope." It was well known that his political course was very distasteful to a large number of his party friends—especially the negroes. He was insulted and overhauled in the Radical State Convention, and was considered so disloyal to his party that many denounced him as a traitor and a disorganizer. Yet the Franklin Convention took him up because he was thought to be their strongest man—but many protested against his nomination, and their disaffection has not yet been healed.

We should learn a lesson from our enemies. "Fas est ab hoste doceri."—We should nominate the candidate to-day who can poll the largest number of votes in the District.

Our District is Democratic, and can be kept so by the proper management and organization. But our opponents are vigilant and energetic—and we must not be a whit behind them in vigilance and energy.

While each county has its preferences, let all compare the strength of the gentlemen who have been named for the nomination, and after a full conference and free interchange of opinion, decide who among them can carry the District by the largest majority, and then let that man be the unanimous choice of the Convention.

IMPORTANT LAWS.

We yield a large portion of our editorial space to two very important laws recently passed by Congress.

The first is the Act, making a Western Judicial District in North Carolina. The second is the new amendment to the Bankrupt Law.

THE NOMINATION OF COL. WADDELL.

From a private dispatch to the DAILY NEWS from Wilmington, we learn that Hon. A. M. Waddell was re-nominated for Congress by the Democratic Convention of the Third District which met on yesterday.

Col. Waddell was nominated by acclamation amid much enthusiasm.

This is a deserved tribute to Col. Waddell's gallant and efficient services in the former campaign against O. H. Dockery. Col. Waddell was then chosen as the standard bearer of our party, when the political sky was at its darkest, and there was barely a hope of carrying the District. But he responded promptly to the call of duty and of honor, and although he received the nomination but a few days before the election, he rushed to the field, and there remained until the sunlight of victory gilded the banner that he had borne so valiantly in the face of such adverse circumstances.

Col. Waddell has performed his duties in Congress, in a most satisfactory manner, and he will doubtless be returned by an increased majority.

THE ECONOMIST.

We were pleased to see in the last Baltimore Advance, some highly complimentary remarks of the Elizabeth City Economist, edited by R. B. Greedy, Esq. The Advance's compliments were paid chiefly to its excellence as a literary paper. But the Economist is now doing gallant and faithful service in behalf of the Democratic cause, and is edited with rare ability and zeal.

Its influence will be powerfully felt in the First Congressional District. With its zealous co-laborer, the Washington Express, the Economist should be well patronized by the people of that District. These papers are entitled to a warm support by their Democratic friends.

HON. T. C. FULLER.

The Congressional Convention for the 3rd District, which met at Wilmington yesterday, nominated this distinguished gentleman as elector for that District.

This is a most admirable selection. Col. Fuller is one of the most eloquent of our public speakers; is an able debater, and an energetic and popular gentleman. The honor could not have fallen upon a more worthy advocate of our cause.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A WESTERN JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That that portion of the State of North Carolina comprising the counties of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Stanly, Montgomery, Richmond, Davie, Davidson, Randolph, Guilford, Rockingham, Stokes, Forsyth, Union, Anson, Caswell, Person, Alamance, Orange, Chatham, Moore, Clay, Cherokee, Swain, Macon, Jackson, Graham, Haywood, Transylvania, Henderson, Buncombe, Madison, Yancey, Mitchell, Watauga, Ashe, Alleghany, Caldwell, Burke, McDowell, Rutherford, Polk, Cleveland, Gaston, Lincoln, Catawba, Alexander, Wilkes, Surry, Iredell, Yadkin, and Rowan, and all territory embraced therein which may hereafter be erected into new counties, shall hereafter constitute a new judicial district, to be called the Western District of North Carolina; and the circuit and district courts of the United States for said district of North Carolina shall be held in the towns of Statesville, Asheville, and Greensboro', within said district.

Sec. 2. That two terms of the circuit and district courts of the United States for said western district of North Carolina shall be held at the following times and places in each year to wit: At Greensboro', beginning on the first Monday in April and in October; at Statesville, beginning on the third Monday in April and in October; at Asheville, beginning on the first Monday in May and in November.

Sec. 3. That the district of North Carolina shall hereafter consist of the counties not named in this act, and shall be called the eastern district of North Carolina, and the terms of the circuit and district courts therein shall be held at the times and places heretofore appointed and enacted.

Sec. 4. That the said circuit and district courts for either of said districts may, in their discretion, order special terms thereof for the trial of criminal and civil issues at such times and places as the court may designate in said districts, and order a grand and a petit jury, or both, to attend the same, by an order to be entered of record thirty days before the day at which said special term shall be ordered to convene; and said courts, respectively, at such special terms shall have all the powers that they have at the regular terms appointed by law: Provided, however, That no special term of said circuit court for either district shall be appointed except by and with the concurrence and consent of the circuit judge.

Sec. 5. That all suits and other proceedings of whatever name or nature, now pending in the circuit or district court of the United States for the district of North Carolina, (except as hereafter provided) shall be tried and disposed of in the circuit and district courts, respectively, for said eastern district, as the same would have been if this act had not been passed; and for that purpose jurisdiction is reserved to the said courts in the said eastern district, and the clerks of the circuit and district courts of the present district of North Carolina shall return the records and files of the said circuit and district courts at the places heretofore appointed, and to do and perform all the duties appertaining to their said offices, respectively, within the eastern district, except as hereinafter provided; and all process returnable to, or proceedings noticed for, any term of the present circuit or district court shall be deemed to be returnable to the next term of said courts, respectively, in the said eastern district, as fixed by this act.

Sec. 6. That upon application of any party to any suit or proceedings, civil or criminal, now pending in the present circuit or district court of the United States for the present district of North Carolina, which should have been commenced in the proper court for the western district of North Carolina if this act had been in force at the time of its commencement, such suit or other proceedings shall be removed for further proceedings to the proper court for said western district, and thereupon the clerk shall transmit the original papers, and the copies of all orders made therein, to the clerk of the court to which said suit or proceedings shall be removed, or if the said suit or proceedings had originally been commenced therein, the district attorney of said western district to designate the court to which all suits and proceedings, and indictments and criminal proceedings, where the United States is plaintiff, shall be removed, and the plaintiff, or his attorney, in all other suits to designate the court to which they shall be transferred; but no suit, indictment, or criminal proceeding, where bail is required of a defendant, shall be transferred until proper bail is given for him according to the provisions of law.

Sec. 7. That the proceedings, both criminal and civil, now pending in the Cape Fear district court of the United States, at Salisbury, with all the original papers therein, shall be transferred for trial or such other proceedings as shall be made and proper to a special term of the district of the United States for said western district of North Carolina, to be held at Salisbury, beginning on the second Monday in August, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-two; and all suits and proceedings, and indictments and criminal proceedings, shall be then finally disposed of, shall with the original papers therein, be transferred to the district courts of said western district at Greensboro' or Statesville, as the Judge may order; and all necessary and proper process shall issue and be made returnable in said suits and proceedings to the next terms of said courts, respectively, for trial or such other proceedings therein as if the original proceedings had begun in said last named courts; and the clerk of said district court at Greensboro' shall act as clerk at said special court at Salisbury; and all suits and other proceedings, both criminal and civil, pending at the late term of the United States district court for the Cape Fear district, held at Marion, beginning on the third Monday of August, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and not then finally disposed of, shall, with the original papers therein, be transferred to a special term of the district court for said western district, to be held at Asheville, North Carolina, beginning on the third Monday in August, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, to be then and there tried, or such other proceedings had therein as may be made and proper, according to the practice of the court, and all such suits and proceedings as shall not then be finally disposed of shall be continued on the docket of said court, at Asheville, to the next term thereof, and in the mean time all necessary and proper process shall issue from said last named court and be returnable thereto, and such proceedings had therein, as if the original proceedings had begun in said court, and the clerk of said special court at Asheville shall act as clerk of said special court at Salisbury.

Sec. 8. That the passage of this act shall not have the effect to destroy or impair the lien of any judgment or decree rendered by the circuit or district court of the United States for the present district of North Carolina prior to this act taking effect; and final process on any judgment or decree entered in the circuit or district court of the United States for the district of North Carolina, or which shall be entered therein prior to this act taking effect, shall not be affected by the enforcement of any order of said court, respectively, in any cause or proceedings now pending therein, except causes or proceedings removed as herein provided shall be issued from, and be returnable to, the proper court for the eastern district of North Carolina, and may be directed to, and executed by, the marshal of the United States for the said eastern district, in any part of the State of North Carolina.

Sec. 9. That there shall be appointed a district judge for the said western district of North Carolina, who shall receive an annual salary of three thousand and five hundred dollars, and there shall be appointed a district attorney of the United States for the said western district of North Carolina, who shall receive such fees and compensation, and exercise such powers and perform such duties, as are fixed and enjoined by law.

Sec. 10. That the circuit and district judges shall appoint three clerks, each of whom shall be clerks both of the circuit and district courts for said western district of North Carolina, one of whom shall reside and keep his office at Statesville, and one shall reside and keep his office at Asheville, and the third of whom shall reside and keep his office at Greensboro', who shall receive the fees and compensation for services performed by them now fixed by law.

Sec. 11. That either of the clerks of the district and circuit courts for said western district of North Carolina is hereby authorized, under the direction of the circuit judge of said western district, to make a transcript from any of the records, files or papers of the district and circuit courts of the United States, remaining in the office of the clerks of said eastern district, of all matters and proceedings which relate to, or concern liens upon, or titles to, real estate situate in said western district, and for that purpose shall have access to said records in the office of the said clerks in said eastern district, and such transcripts, when so made by either of said clerks, shall be certified to, to be true and correct, by the clerks making the same, and the same, when so made and certified, shall be evidence in all courts and places equally with said originals.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH—Indisposition to exercise, difficulty of thinking or reasoning, or concentrating the mind upon any subject, lassitude, lack of ambition or energy, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, acid, thick and tenacious mucus, purulent, offensive, &c. In others a dryness, dry, watery, weak or inflamed eyes, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear throat, ulcerations, death and decay of bones, scabs from throat, constant desire to clear nose and throat, vocalized nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell or taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, difficulty in speaking plainly, general debility, idleness and laziness.

All the above symptoms are common to the disease in some of its stages or complications, yet thousands of cases annually terminate in consumption or insanity, and in the grave without ever having manifested one-third of the symptoms above enumerated.

No disease is more common or less understood by physicians. The Proprietor of Dr. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY will pay $500 reward for a case of catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists, or send sixty cents to R. V. PIERCE, M. D., 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., to be sent by mail.

"IT ACTS LIKE A CHARM."—This is what we hear on all sides of DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT. In cases of Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma and all Pulmonary Diseases it affords instant relief. It penetrates the very substance of the Lungs and causes them to throw off all acid matter. It is very pleasant to the taste. Children take it readily.

A mad dog was killed near Enfield, Halifax county, last week.

Vigorous sanitary measures have been adopted in Wilmington.

Geo. W. Owens, Esq., purposes building a manufacturing mill on Quenby Creek, near Halifax.

Fire did considerable injury to the turpentine distillery of John A. Oates, at Faison, a day or two ago.

Wilmington was visited by refreshing showers of rain on Thursday afternoon and night.

Captain J. D. Andrews, of Lancaster county, South Carolina, died at Shelby on the 29th ult.

It is reported that Major J. M. Blair will have charge of the Sparkling Catawba Springs this summer.

It is contemplated to locate a passenger depot, for all the railroads centering at Charlotte, on Trade Street.

There are two murder cases to be tried at the next term of New Hanover Superior Court.

The warehouse of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, at Faisons, was broken into last Saturday night.

The Odd Fellows of Wilmington have postponed their excursion, which was announced to have taken place today.

The two seamen at the hospital in Smithville, afflicted with small pox, are recovering, and fears of its spreading are not entertained.

During the absence of Judge Cantwell from Wilmington, William McLaurin, colored Justice of the Peace, attends to city cases.

Joseph T. Evans, Esq., of Weldon, will leave today on a visit to Colorado, where, if he is pleased, he will move with his family.

A moody occurred near Halifax on Sunday evening, in which two white men had their heads terribly cut by a negro in several places.

Prisoners sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail, at the last term of Halifax Superior Court, are put to work on the streets of Halifax town.

The Conservative Convention of Cumberland county, which assembled in Fayetteville last Saturday, is said to have been the largest and most intelligent ever held at that place.

Robert Revels, a negro confined in Cleveland county jail, acknowledges his complicity in the robbery of Daniel Hicks, in 1870, and implicates Rufus Starnes, Thomas Williams and Newton Hopper as his accomplices.

The cars on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad ran over a negro who was lying on the track, near Shoe Hill on Tuesday. The negro was being drinking too much. Every effort was made to check the engine, but in vain.

The first number of the Monitor, published at Magnolia, is on our table. W. T. Hanneford is proprietor, Starkey T. Gordon, Editor, and H. C. Moore, Associate. It is a neat sheet, and declares its adherence to the principles of the Democratic party. We extend our best wishes to this new candidate for public favor.

The Wilmington Journal says there are three rumors in that city in regard to rail road changes. The first is that that portion of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta road, between Columbia and Augusta, is to be detached and annexed to the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta road, making an unbroken line from Wilmington to Augusta, and that Hon. R. R. Bridges is to be President. The second is that arrangements will soon be made to convey passengers from Wilmington to Baltimore without change of cars, and the third is that, at no distant day, the same cars will be run through to New York in 24 hours.

A Southern Swindler Playing His Trade on an Imperial Family—Caught and Caged.

A distinguished confidence man, claiming to be an American, has been operating in Europe, and those who knew him in this country will be glad to learn that he has met with the success he deserved, reaping the reward of an industrious pursuit of his vocation in the shape of a sentence to six years at hard labor in an Austrian prison.

The name assumed by the gentleman was Colonel Estvan, and the little game at which he was caught was an attempt to swindle the Imperial family of Austria out of $25,000 for alleged services rendered to the late Emperor Maximilian, of Mexico. Ingeniously fabricated documentary evidence was produced in support of his claim, and at first his pretensions were accepted in Vienna as well founded. But a strict scrutiny of the evidence he offered demonstrated the fact that he was an impostor, and he was dealt with accordingly.

Colonel Estvan became only too well known to the people of the South during the late war. He made Richmond his headquarters, and thence extended his operations in various directions, frequently representing himself as chief of the staff of General Wise, and as authorized to collect hospital and other stores for the Wise Legion.

The ladies of Wilmington, N. C., will probably recollect him, as they intrusted to his care several thousand dollars' worth of clothing, old wines, and other supplies for the soldiers, which he disposed of for his own benefit. He also raised a sum of money under pretence of establishing a sword factory.

He issued a book called "War Pictures," of which he claimed the authorship, but which was probably issued by some one else.

He was well known in this city, passing himself off here as the confidential agent of Maximilian, and finding plenty of people to credit his pretensions. It is said his real name is Bussy, and that his original occupation was that of a courier. It would probably be difficult to ascertain in what country he was born.—New York Sun.

Gold Mining Beneath the Sea.

The Alta Californian exploring Company of New York is about to employ the kind of diving bell, so successfully used at Hell Gate for the collection of gold sand off the California coast. It is well known that at and off Gold Bluff, on the northern shores of California, the sea beach has extensive ranges of golden sands, which are producing no small amount of gold, remarkable for its purity. The sand is black and contains titaniferous iron and visible particles of gold. There was a rush some years ago to these new diggings, which failed because they fell short of extravagant expectations. The gold was there and provokingly visible. But the tide was great and the period of low too short for working.

Then the wet sand had to be carted over roads of dry sand and up the cliffs, and thence miles to water for washing out the gold in a crude way. This kind of work does not suit the crowd who rush to new places expecting to toil little and pick up much. As usual, the back rush reported unfavorably, and ever since, people only remember the abandonment. It was found that the sands grew richer the further the breakers penetrated, and the lifeboats that sounded in six or ten fathoms beyond, found the sandy bottom still richer in gold of remarkable brightness. It seemed as if the gold washed upon the beach came from the submarine banks, but it was deemed impracticable to realize the riches covered by such a depth of moving waters. Now, it is believed that this diving bell will place the gold within the reach of the searchers.

A Novel System of Blackmail.

M. Francisque Surcy, writing in the Niagara Herald, mentions an almost incredible ruse. The Lyons Communists, being fully convinced that money is the sinew of insurrection as well as of war, are said to have hit upon a plan for filling their coffers with little trouble to themselves and at the expense of their enemies, the middle classes. They offer to the members of some of the most important houses of business in Lyons, to insure their property against all damage of destruction by fire in case of a successful Red rising, in return for a stipulated monthly payment.

Not only have many of the Lyons merchants submitted to this novel system of blackmail, but some of them pay as much as $200 a year for this newly-invented insurance against petroleum.

The ingenuity of the Rue Grole Communists, however, did not stop at obtaining blackmail from their enemies, the rich bourgeois. They have now made it a condition that all who were under their protection shall vote at the municipal elections as the famous committee shall direct. To prevent mistakes, the unfortunate bourgeois are required to show their voting papers to a Communist agent just before dropping them into the urn, and to carry them openly displayed, so that there may be no possibility of their voting for other than the "Red" candidates.

A MEMPHIS MYSTERY—SEVENTEEN SKELETONS EXHUMED.—In the Advance of a recent date appeared an account of the finding of four fleshless, blackened skeletons in a very old vault in the rear of what was once known as the Shelby House, on Shelby street, near Clayson tomb. The skeletons were found by some workmen engaged in excavating a cellar on the corner of the streets above mentioned. Since then THIRTEEN SKELETONS MORE have been found, making seventeen in all that have been taken from this seeking, unchristianized tomb for murdered men's bones. That the bones found are those of murdered men, there can be no doubt, as the Shelby House, in former years, was the abode of the lowest and most vicious of the human race. The number of dark deeds of blood that have been consummated in this house and adjoining quarters no man can tell. All the bones as yet discovered present the same hideous, blackened sight, the effect of the acids and gases by which they were surrounded. The fact that all the skeletons discovered were contiguous to the same spot, presumes the idea that they were ever deposited there by the rights of christian burial.

FOR SALE. WARRENTON HOTEL.

In consequence of old age and infirm health for the last seventeen years, and not being able to attend to the duties of a hotel I have resolved to sell the above property. It is located in the town of Warrenton, Warren county, N. C. The hotel contains some thirty rooms, and all necessary out-houses, and can accommodate from 50 to 75 guests comfortably. It is the only public house in the village. Warrenton is celebrated for its healthfulness, good society and schools. There are four churches of different denominations in the village, and it has been for many years a favorite resort of persons seeking health in Summer and Fall. This property will be sold lower than any property of the kind ever offered to the public. I deem it useless to give a further description of the property, as any person desiring to purchase, can come and examine the premises. I am determined to sell.

The hotel will continue open for the reception of the traveling public, and I invite all health seekers, in the Summer, to call upon me. My terms will be moderate.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years.

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are known to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolina Residents. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to such Southern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home, on this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this Home Insurance, which will offer substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

HARSH WORDS.

Harsh words can never die,
Deeply they rest,
In all their ranking power,
Down in the breast.
What though one may forgive,
And all regret be met,
With kind response, alas!
None can forget.

Harsh words will darkly rise
In happiest hours,
Rank thorns in memory's path
Crushing the flowers.
Rank words whose poisonous breath
Mildew and blight unfold,
Wasting the heart like death,
Chilling and cold.

Harsh words, once spoken, stand,
Fear drops that fall
On ocean's rolling waves,
Who can recall
So by rankness moved,
Deeply the heart must feel,
Wounds, which though pardoned all,
Nothing can heal.

Oh, then beware, beware,
Weigh well each word,
Lest when 'tis too late,
Thou wouldst call back again
Harsh words whose memory
Mocks thee in vain.

GUANO GUANO!! GUANO!!!

WALNUT HILL, N. C., Feb. 16, 1872.

Messrs. A. G. Lee & Co., Raleigh.

GENTLEMEN:—By your request, I herewith submit the result of an experiment on cotton with different kinds of Guano purchased of each set of rows when picked out,

On the 2nd row, of the 1st set of rows,

" 3rd " " " " " "

" 4th " " " " " "

" 5th " " " " " "

Peruvian mixed (1-5 Peruvian and 4-5

Guano) was the best of all being of the same quality. The Guano was all accurately weighed when put in the cotton carefully weighed from each set of rows when picked out, and the cost of each kind of Guano correctly calculated; with interest at 8 per cent.

per annum added, taking the first four rows (without Guano) as a basis, the following is the result:

Sell profit on the 2nd row (Peruvian)

on the money laid out, 7 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 3rd row (Peruvian)

on the money laid out, 10 1/2 per cent.

Net profit on the 4th row (Bat)

on the money laid out, 20 1/2 per cent.

Net profit on the 5th row (mixture)

on the money laid out, 9 1/2 per cent.

The cotton was put at 6 1/2 cents per pound in the seed.

Very respectfully yours,

A. T. MIAL.

We can furnish all the above kinds of Guano here at the following rates for cash:

Peruvian, 50 cents per ton.

Patapasco Guano, 50 " "

Wando Fertilizer, 50 " "

Phosphate of Lime, 50 " "

Soluble Sea Island Guano, 60 " "

Zell's Ammoniated super-phosphate,

50 " "

Maryland Cotton Food, 50 " "

Parties desiring to can any of the above on time at a small advance on the above prices, by making arrangements with us.
